

B L O O M A G A I N

HARLEM FOR JAPAN
TOMO
FRIENDSHIP CONCERT

Painting by Mizue Sawano

Sakura

CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

Cherry Blossom Festival

THE 100 YEAR ANNIVERSARY OF THE GIFT OF SAKURA CHERRY TREES

Saturday, April 14

11: 00 a.m. Formal Ceremony

Sakura Park, 122nd & Riverside Drive

Includes a re-enactment of the gift of cherry blossom trees to the United States from Japan in March, 1912, as well as distinguished speakers from the Japanese and American communities.

12: 00 p.m. Harlem For Japan TOMO Friendship Concert

Grants Tomb, 122nd & Riverside Drive

Harlem Youth Marine Color Guard
The National Park Service Ranger Color Guard
Masayho Ishigure
Takako Asahina
Tokiko Kato
Seiji Endo & Kanako Ise featuring Akiha Misaki Band
Yuichiro Oda
Yuko Darjeeling
Zuiho Taiko
Soh Daiko Drummers of New York

Jazzmobile All Star Band
Manhattan School of Music Student Quartet
IMPACT Repertory Theatre
Tiffany Obi – Winner, Apollo Theatre Stars of Tomorrow
Matthew Whitaker – Winner, Apollo Theatre Stars of Tomorrow
Don Eaton & Equinox
T. S. Monk, Jr.
The New York African Chorus Ensemble
The United Nations Singers
The Harlem Japanese Choir

The Harlem For Japan TOMO Friendship Concert is produced by Kats Abe and Voza Rivers

Sunday, April 15

1: 00 p.m. LA-NY Little League "East Meets West" All-Star Baseball Tournament

Marcus Garvey Park, Madison Ave. E. 120th St to 124th St, New York, NY

Harlem Little League & IBEC USA

Sponsored by the Consulate General of Japan in NY and New Heritage Theatre Group

Co-Sponsored by The Nippon Club and the Japanese Chamber of Commerce and Industry of New York Inc.